

Welcome

Travel has been my life for over 20 years. St Augustine's famous quote remains as true to me today as it was when I first set up 2by2 Holidays – "the world is a book and those who do not travel, read only one page".

My first love was Africa, the place of my birth. Its remarkable wildlife and cultures continue to captivate me today. A recent visit to the wildlife of the Serengeti has starkly reminded me just how fragile the survival of so many endangered species remains and reinforced my belief that travel must always have conservation at its heart.

In recent years I have discovered the joys of travel in the Indian subcontinent and Latin America. The iconic sites and cultures there are no less enthralling and everywhere wildlife adapts and survives, from harsh barren deserts to cool mountain cloud forests and tropical wetlands.

My enthusiasm burns as brightly as ever and I continue to be as involved in every aspect of the business as I always have been, backed up by our superb travel team. I'm particularly thrilled that so many of our customers return time after time.

I do hope you find our latest brochure inspiring and we all look forward to hearing from you.

Botswana

With almost 40% of the land use given over to national parks and game reserves, much of Botswana is an unspoiled wildlife haven and one of Africa's premier safari destinations. Its seemingly endless savannas, huge clear blue skies, dramatic salt pans, diamond-rich deserts and fertile flood plains are spectacularly beautiful even by Africa's exceptional standards. Unrestricted by fences, Botswana's wildlife can move freely in large herds across the iconic Okavango Delta, Chobe River ecosystem and the salt pans of the Kalahari Desert.

Okavango Delta

Botswana offers sustainable tourism at its very best, having always followed a 'high income – low impact' approach. This huge but sparsely populated country is about the size of France, with much of its land devoted entirely to wildlife conservation, from the vast Chobe Game Reserve in the north, which supports the highest concentration of elephants in all of Africa, to the lush Moremi Game Reserve and Okavango Delta. The salt pans of Makgadikgadi and arid Central Kalahari offer completely different landscapes.

Alexander McCall Smith introduced many of us to Botswana with his charming 'No.1 Ladies Detective Agency' novels, but with its stable government and diamonds, it is today a very prosperous country and one of the safest in Africa. Many of the camps and lodges are remote and reached by light aircraft. It is a world-class safari destination that offers visitors a true wilderness experience and the prices in high season will reflect this.

The pristine channels, lagoons and islands of the Okavango Delta create a unique wetland where game viewing by land and water is unparalleled.

When to go

Botswana has a warm subtropical climate and can be visited all year round, although the best time for game viewing is from April to October (the mild, dry winter). The Okavango Delta is in full flood from July to October. Birding is best during the hot, wet summer from October to March, as this is when the migrants visit. It is also the birthing season, with the landscape lush and green. The Central Kalahari is at its best at this time of year.

Makgadikgadi Pans

The waters of the Okavango River flow south from Angola but they never reach the sea as they are absorbed into the parched desert sands of the Kalahari, creating a vast, pristine inland delta with seasonal floodplains. This beautiful and unique region attracts great flocks of birds and herd upon herd of plains game and the predators that stalk them.

Lion, leopard, cheetah and elephant can be seen on the delta islands, as can many species of antelope and buffalo, while pods of hippo make their home in the deeper, permanent water channels. Recorded bird species number almost 600 and include the much sought-after Pel's fishing owl. Exploring the tranquil waters of the Okavango Delta by traditional mokoro canoe is the ideal way to get up close to the wildlife. Neighbouring Moremi Game Reserve is a good base for land-based game viewing.

Located in the centre of the country, the Central Kalahari Game Reserve is the second largest game reserve in the world. The Bushmen are hunter-gatherers and are the survivors of the indigenous San people of Southern Africa, although very few still live entirely by traditional skills. San guides at the camps in the Kalahari offer guests the unique and fascinating opportunity to learn the survival techniques that enable man to live in this harsh semi-desert environment.

The Kalahari Desert is one of the largest unbroken stretches of sand in the world and its arid scrubland, salt pans and seasonal rainfall support a surprising amount of wildlife. The rains come between November and March, transforming the parched landscapes. The sweet grasses grow and the salt pans fill with water, triggering an extensive migration to the region of hundreds of thirsty zebra.

To the northeast the stark and fragile pans of the Makgadikgadi and Nxai National Parks provide breeding grounds for huge flocks of flamingo and pelican. In contrast to the lush and verdant Okavango Delta, the flat moon-like vistas here stretch for miles and you feel you can almost see the curvature of the earth. In the early months of each year, after the rains have transformed the salt pans into a series of streams and pools, Africa's second largest migration occurs – with thousands and thousands of zebra and wildebeest moving over 150 miles from the Okavango Delta to Makgadikgadi. This is truly a spectacular sight.

Chobe River

In the northeast of Botswana, Chobe National Park is famous for its huge river-based migrating herds and the largest concentration of elephants in all of Africa.

Chobe National Park is uniquely situated at the confluence of the Zambezi and Chobe Rivers where four African countries meet – Botswana, Namibia, Zimbabwe and Zambia. This is Botswana’s premier wildlife reserve – and also one of the most accessible – surrounded by vast endless landscapes, open plains, baobab trees and abundant river-based wildlife. Together with the Kavango Zambezi Transfrontier Conservation Area, this has created an extensive region rich in wildlife, especially in the dry season. Land-based game viewing is in open-top safari vehicles and river-based viewing is by shallow draft boat.

The permanent Chobe River forms the northern boundary of the park. Here you can overnight on a houseboat, which is especially popular for tiger fishing. The river eventually flows into the great Zambezi and it’s here that one of the world’s most spectacular natural wonders is found, the Victoria Falls. A short 2-hour transfer from Kasane takes you over the border to either the Zambian or Zimbabwean side of the falls and is truly one of those lifetime experiences that travellers should not miss.

Further south within Chobe National Park, the Savuti Plains are another prime safari destination and have been the location for many wildlife documentaries. The mostly dry Savuti Channel flows intermittently from the Linyanti River into the Chobe River, turning the Savuti into a marsh. When dry, the expansive grasslands are rich with nutrients and many herds of plains game pass through on their annual migrations. Lion, hyena and elephant can be seen regularly as well as the elusive leopard.

To the northwest of Chobe, the Linyanti River marks the border of Botswana and Namibia’s Caprivi, and here river valleys and more open grassy plains are typical of the terrain. Lion, leopard and cheetah as well as many plains game and buffalo make their home here. This is one of the best places to see the endangered African wild dog and you may catch sight of an exciting hunt as a pack tries to chase down its dinner!

Special Interest Holidays

Travel offers a wonderful opportunity to do and see things that you have previously only dreamed of. We can introduce you to a wonderland of new experiences and if you have a particular passion or interest, we are the people to talk to. Known for our wildlife and cultural holidays, we also have expertise in many other specialisms. Unlike most travel companies, we take the time to research and book even the most unusual requests. Here we highlight some of the special interest holidays that other customers have loved.

Walking

If you enjoy hiking, we offer a thrilling range of walking safaris – ranging from a few hours in the early morning or late afternoon, accompanied by an armed ranger, to specialised walking camps in Botswana and South Africa where all game viewing is on foot. We also offer point-to-point trails in Zambia, where you can spend a week walking from one remote bush camp to another – a truly unforgettable experience!

You can trek to see mountain gorillas, and in most of our destinations we can incorporate a variety of walking and hiking trails into your itinerary, ranging from day hikes to waterfalls and volcanoes in Costa Rica, to Peru's iconic Inca Trail and Nepal's stunning Annapurna Trek.

If you are sufficiently fit, you can even combine a safari in East Africa with climbing Mount Kilimanjaro, accompanied by experienced mountain guides.

Birding

Many of our customers are avid birders who want to spot regional endemics, as well as increase their life list, whilst others are more casual birders who simply enjoy the pleasure of identifying known species and spotting new ones. Whichever category you fit into, we know how important it is to design an itinerary that visits the best birding regions, at the right time of year.

With our extensive network of specialist birding guides, we can tailor make private tours to key destinations such as Costa Rica, Colombia, Mexico, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Ecuador and Galapagos, Brazil, Guyana, Madagascar, South Africa, Botswana, Kenya, Tanzania, India, Bhutan and Sri Lanka. We can also help you track down iconic species, such as the Harpy eagle in Panama.

We offer cheaper lodge-based birding holidays too, using guides employed by the various lodges – although the quality of guiding can vary – and a few scheduled departure tours in high demand countries such as Costa Rica.

Sports & Cultural Events

As we tailor make all our holidays, we cater to a wide range of special interests.

Golf

Our golf holidays in South Africa are particularly popular, allowing golfers to escape the northern winter and combine championship golf with wine tasting and a luxury safari or beach break. You can select the courses you wish to play, varying from social to world class.

Riding

Our riding holidays vary from thrilling mobile horseback safaris in Big Five territory for experienced riders, to family-friendly lodge-based riding holidays suitable for all levels.

Diving

The Indian Ocean offers outstanding diving in warm water, from Kenya all the way down to Zanzibar, Mozambique and South Africa, as well as the islands of the Maldives, Andamans, Mauritius, Seychelles and Madagascar. Galapagos offers live-aboard dive ships, whilst Mexico and Belize offer superb Caribbean diving.

Fishing

These same regions offer some of the best deep-sea fishing in the world. To this must be added the renowned fishing waters of the Baja Peninsula in Mexico.

Sports Events

Sports events are often the catalyst for a special holiday. We can source tickets to rugby internationals in South Africa and Argentina, as well as cricket tests in India, Sri Lanka and South Africa. We can also arrange Grand Prix packages.

Cultural Events

We can also build a holiday around special events such as the Rio Carnival, Holi in India or the Day of the Dead celebrations in Mexico

Cruises & Houseboats

Expedition cruises explore regions that are difficult to reach in other ways, whilst relaxing houseboats provide a different perspective from the water.

Expedition Cruises

Expedition cruises to the Galapagos Islands in Ecuador are the best way to explore the unique wildlife of this stunning archipelago. Itineraries vary in length from several days to a week or more, with a wide choice of boats varying in size, design and cost.

Patagonia expedition cruises sail from southern Argentina to Chile, and vice versa, navigating via Glacier Alley and Cape Horn.

Expedition cruises to the Falkland Islands and Antarctica use much larger vessels capable of handling the polar ice.

You need to be relatively mobile to enjoy an expedition cruise, as you will disembark twice a day for excursions, making your way down a gangplank into a zodiac-type inflatable.

Houseboats

Houseboats are a relaxing way to watch the world go by. They are the perfect way to explore the mighty Amazon River, the largest in South America, whether boarding from Manaus in Brazil, Coca in Ecuador or Iquitos in Peru.

You can also explore Brazil's southern Pantanal by houseboat or sail down the Magdalena River in Colombia.

India has houseboats that sail down the Brahmaputra and Ganges Rivers and are wonderful for observing local life. You can also spend a night on a traditional rice houseboat gliding through the Kerala backwaters.

In Africa, Botswana has houseboats on the Chobe River, superb for both wildlife viewing and tiger fishing, whilst Zimbabwe has houseboats on Lake Kariba. Lake Jozini in South Africa also offers tiger fishing by houseboat.

Houseboat facilities will be en suite, but expect the cabins on many boats to be relatively small and simple.

Ocean Cruises

Through our sister company, Auriel Holidays, we can source a wide variety of ocean cruises that can tie in with tailor-made land arrangements, either before or after your cruise.

Accessible Travel

If you are a wheelchair user or have limited mobility, long-haul travel poses a unique set of challenges, but as the UK market leader in accessible safari holidays we have considerable expertise in this field. Our greatest experience is in Southern and East Africa, but we have been expanding our knowledge in recent years and we now also offer accessible holidays to India, Sri Lanka and Latin America.

Whether you are simply unsure about travelling without assistance, walk with sticks or use a wheelchair permanently, we can design a holiday appropriate to your needs. We know which hotels and lodges are accessible (i.e. ramps, roll-in showers and grab rails) and which are not, and your private guide can travel with a shower chair if needed. However if you use a power chair, we will need to get the approval of the airline before we can confirm your holiday.

In South Africa, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Tanzania and Namibia we have access to a small number of accessible vehicles, with ramps for wheelchairs. If you have upper body strength and can transfer into a regular vehicle, you will have more destination choices.

In India we also have a few accessible vehicles on the famous Golden Triangle route. In Latin America accessible vehicles are found mostly in the larger cities, but if you use a manual wheelchair we can take you to places such as Machu Picchu and the Galapagos Islands.

The accessible section of our website showcases the many destinations we offer, but as you will have many questions please call us to discuss your specific needs or visit us in person and we will be happy to go through all the details with you.

As accessible hotels, guides and vehicles are always in short supply, you should book your holiday well in advance.

Small Group Tours

We offer a range of sociable small group tours in many of our key destinations, if you don't want to travel independently or self drive.

Southern Africa

South Africa offers a range of small group tours, travelling from beautiful Cape Town along the scenic Garden Route to Port Elizabeth. Afterwards you can add on a Big Five safari in the Eastern Cape. Alternatively, you can combine the wildlife of the famous Kruger National Park with Eswatini (Swaziland), Zululand and the beaches of Durban.

Namibia tours take in this country's dramatic landscapes, from the Fish River Canyon to Etosha, with longer tours travelling through the lush Caprivi to Victoria Falls.

Botswana wildlife tours are generally done under canvas, exploring the wildlife of the Okavango Delta and Chobe.

East Africa

Kenya small group tours visit the famous Masai Mara, the elephants of Samburu and Amboseli in the foothills of Mount Kilimanjaro, with shorter tours from Mombasa.

Tanzania tours explore the northern circuit of Tarangire, Ngorongoro Crater and the vast open plains of the wildlife-rich Serengeti.

Uganda tours focus on chimp and gorilla trekking. Ethiopia tours explore its ancient history.

Latin America

Peru tours visit Cusco and the stunning Inca citadel at Machu Picchu, with an extension to Lake Titicaca and the salt flats of Bolivia. Alternatively, you can combine Peru with Ecuador and the fascinating Galapagos Islands.

Brazil tours combines vibrant Rio de Janeiro with the thundering Iguassu Falls, whilst tours of Argentina and Chile focus on their capital cities and the dramatic landscapes of spectacular Patagonia.

Mexico small group tours explore their pyramids and the spectacular Mayan ruins of the Yucatan, before relaxing on the warm Mayan Riviera.

Through our sister company, Auriel Holidays, we offers tours to many other destinations.
