

Welcome

Travel has been my life for over 20 years. St Augustine's famous quote remains as true to me today as it was when I first set up 2by2 Holidays – "the world is a book and those who do not travel, read only one page".

My first love was Africa, the place of my birth. Its remarkable wildlife and cultures continue to captivate me today.

A recent visit to the wildlife of the Serengeti has starkly reminded me just how fragile the survival of so many endangered species remains and reinforced my belief that travel must always have conservation at its heart.

In recent years I have discovered the joys of travel in the Indian subcontinent and Latin America. The iconic sites and cultures there are no less enthralling and everywhere wildlife adapts and survives, from harsh barren deserts to cool mountain cloud forests and tropical wetlands.

My enthusiasm burns as brightly as ever and I continue to be as involved in every aspect of the business as I always have been, backed up by our superb travel team. I'm particularly thrilled that so many of our customers return time after time.

I do hope you find our latest brochure inspiring and we all look forward to hearing from you.

Colombia

With its captivating mix of vibrant South American culture, charming colonial cities, stunning landscapes, brilliant birding and pristine Caribbean beaches, Colombia is a rising star.

Colonised in 1499 by the Spanish, who called it New Granada, Colombia is a vast and culturally rich country that is one of the most bio-diverse in the world. It has spectacular landscapes, ranging from tropical rainforests and open grasslands to dramatic mountains and magnificent coral reefs, all rich in flora and fauna. Colombia also boasts the highest bird count in the world, with nearly 2,000 different species.

The mighty Andes Mountains reach upwards into Colombia, branching into three ranges that form the spine of the country. The capital city of Bogotá is located in one of these high-altitude valleys. Wander through La Candelaria, the well-preserved downtown area, and visit the astonishing Gold Museum that showcases gold artefacts from pre-Spanish cultures. For spectacular views take the cable car to the summit of Monserrate at 3,152 metres, or walk up if you are feeling energetic. On Sundays, the San Alejo flea market is home to hundreds of craftsmen, restorers and collectors, all displaying antiques, books and curiosities.

Outside the city, visit the remarkable Salt Cathedral carved out from a former salt mine at Zipaquirá. Also don't miss Villa de Leyva, one of Colombia's most picturesque colonial villages. If adrenaline sports are your thing, head north to San Gil and the Rio Fonce, Colombia's white-water rafting capital. Here you can also horse ride, fish and hike.

Colombian coffee is legendary and spending a few days at a 'finca' (estate) in the rolling hills of the Coffee Region, centred in Pereira, is a popular option. An excursion to the lush Cocora Valley, with its giant wax palms and condors, and colonial Salento is a must.

Cabo San Juan, Tayrona National Park

The flower-producing region of Medellín, formerly the home of drug baron Pablo Escobar, offers a unique blend of art, tango and an amazing cable car network. Take a boat ride on the dam, climb gigantic El Peñol rock and explore colourful Guatapé.

Another sight unique to this country is the Rainbow River of Five Colours found near La Macarena in the centre of the country. From June to November you can hike to see its striking shades of red, yellow, green, blue and black caused by unique geology and an aquatic plant that changes colour according to the amount of sunshine and depth of the water.

Wildlife enthusiasts should head east to the vast open grasslands of Los Llanos, where llaneros (cowboys) coexist with the animals.

Leticia in the south is the gateway to the rainforest wildlife of the Amazon, where you can stay in a simple eco-lodge run by an indigenous community.

Birders usually combine the Andes and Coffee Region with Tayrona National Park and the Santa Marta Mountains, where the thick tropical vegetation is home to many endemic species.

Colombia's most impressive archaeological sites are found near San Agustín in the southwest, where hundreds of pre-Columbian megalithic sculptures can be seen. Dating from a civilisation that lasted from 200 BC to 1300 AD, these stone tomb guardians have been designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

However, the jewel in Colombia's crown is undoubtedly another of its World

San Agustín

Heritage Sites, the superbly preserved Caribbean coastal city of Cartagena. This magnificent walled city was built in the 16th century to withstand the attentions of pirates seeking to intercept Spanish galleons exporting gold plundered from the Incas. The mix of old and new here is stunning, with cobbled alleys, balconies, bougainvillea and huge churches contrasting with modern hotels.

For a relaxing Caribbean beach break, head to Barú Island or Santa Marta. For snorkelling and diving, take a 45-minute boat ride to the spectacular Rosario Islands, which are dotted like mother of pearl along the coast. If you wish to escape the crowds, head to the tranquil coral islands and crystal clear waters of the San Bernardo archipelago.

When to go

The best time to visit Colombia is during one of the two dry seasons - December to March or July to September. This is also the best time to view wildlife and for birding. Bogotá is situated high in the Andes with a cool, changeable alpine climate. Medellín and the Coffee Region always have a pleasantly warm climate. The Amazon, Cartagena and Caribbean coast are hot and humid all year round. The Rainbow River is best in July and August.

Special Interest Holidays

Travel offers a wonderful opportunity to do and see things that you have previously only dreamed of. We can introduce you to a wonderland of new experiences and if you have a particular passion or interest, we are the people to talk to. Known for our wildlife and cultural holidays, we also have expertise in many other specialisms. Unlike most travel companies, we take the time to research and book even the most unusual requests. Here we highlight some of the special interest holidays that other customers have loved.

Walking

If you enjoy hiking, we offer a thrilling range of walking safaris – ranging from a few hours in the early morning or late afternoon, accompanied by an armed ranger, to specialised walking camps in Botswana and South Africa where all game viewing is on foot. We also offer point-to-point trails in Zambia, where you can spend a week walking from one remote bush camp to another – a truly unforgettable experience!

You can trek to see mountain gorillas, and in most of our destinations we can incorporate a variety of walking and hiking trails into your itinerary, ranging from day hikes to waterfalls and volcanoes in Costa Rica, to Peru's iconic Inca Trail and Nepal's stunning Annapurna Trek.

If you are sufficiently fit, you can even combine a safari in East Africa with climbing Mount Kilimanjaro, accompanied by experienced mountain guides.

Birding

Many of our customers are avid birders who want to spot regional endemics, as well as increase their life list, whilst others are more casual birders who simply enjoy the pleasure of identifying known species and spotting new ones. Whichever category you fit into, we know how important it is to design an itinerary that visits the best birding regions, at the right time of year.

With our extensive network of specialist birding guides, we can tailor make private tours to key destinations such as Costa Rica, Colombia, Mexico, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Ecuador and Galapagos, Brazil, Guyana, Madagascar, South Africa, Botswana, Kenya, Tanzania, India, Bhutan and Sri Lanka. We can also help you track down iconic species, such as the Harpy eagle in Panama.

We offer cheaper lodge-based birding holidays too, using guides employed by the various lodges – although the quality of guiding can vary – and a few scheduled departure tours in high demand countries such as Costa Rica.

Sports & Cultural Events

As we tailor make all our holidays, we cater to a wide range of special interests.

Golf

Our golf holidays in South Africa are particularly popular, allowing golfers to escape the northern winter and combine championship golf with wine tasting and a luxury safari or beach break. You can select the courses you wish to play, varying from social to world class.

Riding

Our riding holidays vary from thrilling mobile horseback safaris in Big Five territory for experienced riders, to family-friendly lodge-based riding holidays suitable for all levels.

Diving

The Indian Ocean offers outstanding diving in warm water, from Kenya all the way down to Zanzibar, Mozambique and South Africa, as well as the islands of the Maldives, Andamans, Mauritius, Seychelles and Madagascar. Galapagos offers live-aboard dive ships, whilst Mexico and Belize offer superb Caribbean diving.

Fishing

These same regions offer some of the best deep-sea fishing in the world. To this must be added the renowned fishing waters of the Baja Peninsula in Mexico.

Sports Events

Sports events are often the catalyst for a special holiday. We can source tickets to rugby internationals in South Africa and Argentina, as well as cricket tests in India, Sri Lanka and South Africa. We can also arrange Grand Prix packages.

Cultural Events

We can also build a holiday around special events such as the Rio Carnival, Holi in India or the Day of the Dead celebrations in Mexico

Cruises & Houseboats

Expedition cruises explore regions that are difficult to reach in other ways, whilst relaxing houseboats provide a different perspective from the water.

Expedition Cruises

Expedition cruises to the Galapagos Islands in Ecuador are the best way to explore the unique wildlife of this stunning archipelago. Itineraries vary in length from several days to a week or more, with a wide choice of boats varying in size, design and cost.

Patagonia expedition cruises sail from southern Argentina to Chile, and vice versa, navigating via Glacier Alley and Cape Horn.

Expedition cruises to the Falkland Islands and Antarctica use much larger vessels capable of handling the polar ice.

You need to be relatively mobile to enjoy an expedition cruise, as you will disembark twice a day for excursions, making your way down a gangplank into a zodiac-type inflatable.

Houseboats

Houseboats are a relaxing way to watch the world go by. They are the perfect way to explore the mighty Amazon River, the largest in South America, whether boarding from Manaus in Brazil, Coca in Ecuador or Iquitos in Peru.

You can also explore Brazil's southern Pantanal by houseboat or sail down the Magdalena River in Colombia.

India has houseboats that sail down the Brahmaputra and Ganges Rivers and are wonderful for observing local life. You can also spend a night on a traditional rice houseboat gliding through the Kerala backwaters.

In Africa, Botswana has houseboats on the Chobe River, superb for both wildlife viewing and tiger fishing, whilst Zimbabwe has houseboats on Lake Kariba. Lake Jozini in South Africa also offers tiger fishing by houseboat.

Houseboat facilities will be en suite, but expect the cabins on many boats to be relatively small and simple.

Ocean Cruises

Through our sister company, Auriel Holidays, we can source a wide variety of ocean cruises that can tie in with tailor-made land arrangements, either before or after your cruise.

Accessible Travel

If you are a wheelchair user or have limited mobility, long-haul travel poses a unique set of challenges, but as the UK market leader in accessible safari holidays we have considerable expertise in this field. Our greatest experience is in Southern and East Africa, but we have been expanding our knowledge in recent years and we now also offer accessible holidays to India, Sri Lanka and Latin America.

Whether you are simply unsure about travelling without assistance, walk with sticks or use a wheelchair permanently, we can design a holiday appropriate to your needs. We know which hotels and lodges are accessible (i.e. ramps, roll-in showers and grab rails) and which are not, and your private guide can travel with a shower chair if needed. However if you use a power chair, we will need to get the approval of the airline before we can confirm your holiday.

In South Africa, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Tanzania and Namibia we have access to a small number of accessible vehicles, with ramps for wheelchairs. If you have upper body strength and can transfer into a regular vehicle, you will have more destination choices.

In India we also have a few accessible vehicles on the famous Golden Triangle route. In Latin America accessible vehicles are found mostly in the larger cities, but if you use a manual wheelchair we can take you to places such as Machu Picchu and the Galapagos Islands.

The accessible section of our website showcases the many destinations we offer, but as you will have many questions please call us to discuss your specific needs or visit us in person and we will be happy to go through all the details with you.

As accessible hotels, guides and vehicles are always in short supply, you should book your holiday well in advance.
