

Welcome

Travel has been my life for over 20 years. St Augustine's famous quote remains as true to me today as it was when I first set up 2by2 Holidays – "the world is a book and those who do not travel, read only one page".

My first love was Africa, the place of my birth. Its remarkable wildlife and cultures continue to captivate me today. A recent visit to the wildlife of the Serengeti has starkly reminded me just how fragile the survival of so many endangered species remains and reinforced my belief that travel must always have conservation at its heart.

In recent years I have discovered the joys of travel in the Indian subcontinent and Latin America. The iconic sites and cultures there are no less enthralling and everywhere wildlife adapts and survives, from harsh barren deserts to cool mountain cloud forests and tropical wetlands.

My enthusiasm burns as brightly as ever and I continue to be as involved in every aspect of the business as I always have been, backed up by our superb travel team. I'm particularly thrilled that so many of our customers return time after time.

I do hope you find our latest brochure inspiring and we all look forward to hearing from you.

Praslin Island

Seychelles

One of the most exclusive destinations in the Indian Ocean, the 115 granite and coralline islands that make up the Seychelles are extraordinarily beautiful.

Scattered near the equator in the Indian Ocean, the islands of the Seychelles really are as stunning as they look in travel brochures. Some of the islands are the tips of ancient volcanoes dating back millions of years, while others are tiny coral islands and atolls. This is a truly exotic destination that offers pristine beaches, superb snorkelling and diving as well as world-class game fishing. It's a favourite choice for honeymooners who love the romantic seclusion.

The largest island in the Seychelles is Mahé and this is where the capital, Victoria, is found. Mahé's many attractive beaches range from tiny coves to long sweeping bays, with Beau Vallon one of the most popular. The centre of the island is mountainous with lush jungle-clad slopes, and a visit to the Morne Seychellois National Park is a must. The delicious Creole cuisine blends flavours from Africa, Arabia and India, and is testimony to the diverse heritage of the archipelago.

Twenty-five miles to the northeast of Mahé, laid-back Praslin, the second largest island, is many visitors' idea of paradise with its white sandy beaches, massive granite boulders and swaying palm trees. Vallée de Mai Nature Reserve is famous for its huge Coco de Mer palms and Anse Lazio beach is world-renowned. Nearby, mountainous La Digue is the third largest of the inhabited granite islands. Here the beaches are wild and secluded, and traditional ox carts are still used.

Anse Intendance, Mahé

Many of the outlying islands are coralline and uninhabited although some, like Denis Island to the north of Mahé, have lodges that offer visitors a truly exclusive castaway experience, with prices to match. The eco-lodge on granitic North Island is probably the most upmarket of them all. Frequented by royalty and celebs (this is where Prince William and Kate honeymooned), it is also a conservation success story following the collapse of the coconut industry.

In the far west, the uninhabited Aldabra atoll is home to approximately 150,000 giant tortoises and is now a World Heritage Site. This species – found in both the Seychelles and the Galapagos – is known to live for over 200 years and is therefore the longest living creature on our planet.

Other enchanting members of the same family are the Leatherback and endangered Hawksbill turtles that can be seen swimming through the islands' turquoise waters. Sperm whales often visit the islands around July and August and dolphins, manta rays and whale sharks are also regularly spotted.

The birdlife in the Seychelles is very special. The archipelago has been nominated as an Endemic Bird Area by BirdLife International, due to the many endangered species that make their home here. Some, like the Paradise flycatcher, Seychelles white eye and the Seychelles sunbird, are unique to these islands. Over a million Sooty terns nest on Bird Island from May to September.

Giant tortoise

Many travellers find that combining a beach break in the Seychelles with a Big Five safari in Kenya gives them the best of both worlds. Try to visit more than one island to experience the contrasting scenery.

Seychelles Safari

- DAY 1 Arrive in Nairobi & fly to a luxury lodge in the famous Masai Mara
- DAYS 2/3 Thrilling Big Five safari on the open plains, with morning & afternoon game drives searching for predators & plains game
- DAY 4 After an early morning game drive, fly to Nairobi
- DAYS 5/9 Fly to Mahé in the paradise Seychelles Islands. Explore the capital of Victoria & relax on some of the most beautiful beaches in the world, with optional island hopping to Praslin & La Digue islands
- DAY 10 Depart from Mahé

When to go

Situated just south of the equator, the Seychelles archipelago has a warm and humid tropical climate that is influenced by the trade winds. These islands can be visited all year round, but the best time is from April to October when the southeast trade winds bring relatively dry weather, with fresh sea breezes. The sea can be a little choppy when these winds are at their peak in July and August, but storms are rare as only the most remote southern islands are in the cyclone belt. This is also the best time for birding, as the breeding season starts in April. The trade winds change direction from November to March, when it is hotter and more humid with some rain. However, this is the best time for marine activities as the seas are at their calmest. October to February is the turtle nesting season and whale sharks can be seen from November to January. Deep sea fishing is best from October to April. Visibility for diving is best in April/May and October/November, when the trade winds change direction.

This is an example itinerary – see page 5 for key. For more ideas, information and prices call us on 01582 766122 or visit www.2by2holidays.co.uk

Special Interest Holidays

Travel offers a wonderful opportunity to do and see things that you have previously only dreamed of. We can introduce you to a wonderland of new experiences and if you have a particular passion or interest, we are the people to talk to. Known for our wildlife and cultural holidays, we also have expertise in many other specialisms. Unlike most travel companies, we take the time to research and book even the most unusual requests. Here we highlight some of the special interest holidays that other customers have loved.

Walking

If you enjoy hiking, we offer a thrilling range of walking safaris – ranging from a few hours in the early morning or late afternoon, accompanied by an armed ranger, to specialised walking camps in Botswana and South Africa where all game viewing is on foot. We also offer point-to-point trails in Zambia, where you can spend a week walking from one remote bush camp to another – a truly unforgettable experience!

You can trek to see mountain gorillas, and in most of our destinations we can incorporate a variety of walking and hiking trails into your itinerary, ranging from day hikes to waterfalls and volcanoes in Costa Rica, to Peru's iconic Inca Trail and Nepal's stunning Annapurna Trek.

If you are sufficiently fit, you can even combine a safari in East Africa with climbing Mount Kilimanjaro, accompanied by experienced mountain guides.

Birding

Many of our customers are avid birders who want to spot regional endemics, as well as increase their life list, whilst others are more casual birders who simply enjoy the pleasure of identifying known species and spotting new ones. Whichever category you fit into, we know how important it is to design an itinerary that visits the best birding regions, at the right time of year.

With our extensive network of specialist birding guides, we can tailor make private tours to key destinations such as Costa Rica, Colombia, Mexico, Chile, Argentina, Peru, Ecuador and Galapagos, Brazil, Guyana, Madagascar, South Africa, Botswana, Kenya, Tanzania, India, Bhutan and Sri Lanka. We can also help you track down iconic species, such as the Harpy eagle in Panama.

We offer cheaper lodge-based birding holidays too, using guides employed by the various lodges – although the quality of guiding can vary – and a few scheduled departure tours in high demand countries such as Costa Rica.

Sports & Cultural Events

As we tailor make all our holidays, we cater to a wide range of special interests.

Golf

Our golf holidays in South Africa are particularly popular, allowing golfers to escape the northern winter and combine championship golf with wine tasting and a luxury safari or beach break. You can select the courses you wish to play, varying from social to world class.

Riding

Our riding holidays vary from thrilling mobile horseback safaris in Big Five territory for experienced riders, to family-friendly lodge-based riding holidays suitable for all levels.

Diving

The Indian Ocean offers outstanding diving in warm water, from Kenya all the way down to Zanzibar, Mozambique and South Africa, as well as the islands of the Maldives, Andamans, Mauritius, Seychelles and Madagascar. Galapagos offers live-aboard dive ships, whilst Mexico and Belize offer superb Caribbean diving.

Fishing

These same regions offer some of the best deep-sea fishing in the world. To this must be added the renowned fishing waters of the Baja Peninsula in Mexico.

Sports Events

Sports events are often the catalyst for a special holiday. We can source tickets to rugby internationals in South Africa and Argentina, as well as cricket tests in India, Sri Lanka and South Africa. We can also arrange Grand Prix packages.

Cultural Events

We can also build a holiday around special events such as the Rio Carnival, Holi in India or the Day of the Dead celebrations in Mexico

Cruises & Houseboats

Expedition cruises explore regions that are difficult to reach in other ways, whilst relaxing houseboats provide a different perspective from the water.

Expedition Cruises

Expedition cruises to the Galapagos Islands in Ecuador are the best way to explore the unique wildlife of this stunning archipelago. Itineraries vary in length from several days to a week or more, with a wide choice of boats varying in size, design and cost.

Patagonia expedition cruises sail from southern Argentina to Chile, and vice versa, navigating via Glacier Alley and Cape Horn.

Expedition cruises to the Falkland Islands and Antarctica use much larger vessels capable of handling the polar ice.

You need to be relatively mobile to enjoy an expedition cruise, as you will disembark twice a day for excursions, making your way down a gangplank into a zodiac-type inflatable.

Houseboats

Houseboats are a relaxing way to watch the world go by. They are the perfect way to explore the mighty Amazon River, the largest in South America, whether boarding from Manaus in Brazil, Coca in Ecuador or Iquitos in Peru.

You can also explore Brazil's southern Pantanal by houseboat or sail down the Magdalena River in Colombia.

India has houseboats that sail down the Brahmaputra and Ganges Rivers and are wonderful for observing local life. You can also spend a night on a traditional rice houseboat gliding through the Kerala backwaters.

In Africa, Botswana has houseboats on the Chobe River, superb for both wildlife viewing and tiger fishing, whilst Zimbabwe has houseboats on Lake Kariba. Lake Jozini in South Africa also offers tiger fishing by houseboat.

Houseboat facilities will be en suite, but expect the cabins on many boats to be relatively small and simple.

Ocean Cruises

Through our sister company, Auriel Holidays, we can source a wide variety of ocean cruises that can tie in with tailor-made land arrangements, either before or after your cruise.

Accessible Travel

If you are a wheelchair user or have limited mobility, long-haul travel poses a unique set of challenges, but as the UK market leader in accessible safari holidays we have considerable expertise in this field. Our greatest experience is in Southern and East Africa, but we have been expanding our knowledge in recent years and we now also offer accessible holidays to India, Sri Lanka and Latin America.

Whether you are simply unsure about travelling without assistance, walk with sticks or use a wheelchair permanently, we can design a holiday appropriate to your needs. We know which hotels and lodges are accessible (i.e. ramps, roll-in showers and grab rails) and which are not, and your private guide can travel with a shower chair if needed. However if you use a power chair, we will need to get the approval of the airline before we can confirm your holiday.

In South Africa, Zimbabwe, Kenya, Tanzania and Namibia we have access to a small number of accessible vehicles, with ramps for wheelchairs. If you have upper body strength and can transfer into a regular vehicle, you will have more destination choices.

In India we also have a few accessible vehicles on the famous Golden Triangle route. In Latin America accessible vehicles are found mostly in the larger cities, but if you use a manual wheelchair we can take you to places such as Machu Picchu and the Galapagos Islands.

The accessible section of our website showcases the many destinations we offer, but as you will have many questions please call us to discuss your specific needs or visit us in person and we will be happy to go through all the details with you.

As accessible hotels, guides and vehicles are always in short supply, you should book your holiday well in advance.

Small Group Tours

We offer a range of sociable small group tours in many of our key destinations, if you don't want to travel independently or self drive.

Southern Africa

South Africa offers a range of small group tours, travelling from beautiful Cape Town along the scenic Garden Route to Port Elizabeth. Afterwards you can add on a Big Five safari in the Eastern Cape. Alternatively, you can combine the wildlife of the famous Kruger National Park with Eswatini (Swaziland), Zululand and the beaches of Durban.

Namibia tours take in this country's dramatic landscapes, from the Fish River Canyon to Etosha, with longer tours travelling through the lush Caprivi to Victoria Falls.

Botswana wildlife tours are generally done under canvas, exploring the wildlife of the Okavango Delta and Chobe.

East Africa

Kenya small group tours visit the famous Masai Mara, the elephants of Samburu and Amboseli in the foothills of Mount Kilimanjaro, with shorter tours from Mombasa.

Tanzania tours explore the northern circuit of Tarangire, Ngorongoro Crater and the vast open plains of the wildlife-rich Serengeti.

Uganda tours focus on chimp and gorilla trekking. Ethiopia tours explore its ancient history.

Latin America

Peru tours visit Cusco and the stunning Inca citadel at Machu Picchu, with an extension to Lake Titicaca and the salt flats of Bolivia. Alternatively, you can combine Peru with Ecuador and the fascinating Galapagos Islands.

Brazil tours combines vibrant Rio de Janeiro with the thundering Iguassu Falls, whilst tours of Argentina and Chile focus on their capital cities and the dramatic landscapes of spectacular Patagonia.

Mexico small group tours explore their pyramids and the spectacular Mayan ruins of the Yucatan, before relaxing on the warm Mayan Riviera.

Through our sister company, Auriel Holidays, we offers tours to many other destinations.
